Ladies and Gentlemen I thank you very much for this kind reception and for the compliment which the Rex association has just paid me. For pronounced republican as I am it would under ordinary circumstances hardly be proper for me to accept the distinction which you have just conferred upon me especially as I have been frequently charged with the attempt to seize upon a higher title. They have fixed all their hopes on success, and the ex president not only seeks the nomination, but does not mean to be balked in his design. He will not withdraw. There is no doubt on this point. REPUBLICAN CONVENTION OF MARION.

Salem April 3 1880

Never perhaps in the history of this state has there been a political convention of any kind wherein a closer contest or a deeper interest prevailed than were manifested at the republican county convention that met in this city yesterday. For months past the respective candidates have been laying their plans and working up their individual booms. Delegates commenced arriving in the city on Thursday morning, and nearly all were present on the afternoon and evening of the same day when the fun actually commenced and never did candidates and their friends work with more earnest zeal. During the afternoon the street corners were utilized as headquarters, and during the evening the Chemeketa Hotel was literally crowded by candidates and their victims. Matters warmed up amazingly and booms changed with amazing rapidity. Candidates surest of nomination when the primaries closed noticed too plainly that their chances were wavering in the balance while lightning was evidently about to strike where least expected. The country delegations came in determined on securing for themselves either the office of sheriff or clerk and the only question was as to whom to unite on. The morning of the convention dawned on a set of delegates who to outside appearances were unable to combine their forces. R C Ramsby came in with his Silver ton delegation solid for him for sheriff. Aurora sent up a delegation none the less firm in their support of Steve Smith for clerk. John G Wright It was conceded by nearly every one had sufficient positive strength to go through on the first ballot for sheriff. Mart Chamberlin's friends all though reserved were as firm as a rock resolved to see him nominated for clerk while Geo A Edes had no doubt more strength than any candidate named for the clerkship. Thus it looked [to] outsiders and many there [illegible] confident that Wright and Edes were the choice of the convention

[illegible] after the appointment of and report from the various committees the balloting com[menced] [illegible] legislative ticket was elected that [illegible] of general excellence gives universal satisfaction. Then followed the county commissioners both good men. Then came the contest for the office of sheriff when it was discovered that the country delegates had united on securing it and after two or three ineffectual ballots wherein Messrs Wright, Ramsby and Cusick were the chief contestants Mr Ramsby secured the [illegible] 84 votes and amid the plaudits of his friends was declared the nominee. While a feeling [illegible] over Mr Wright's defeat Mr Ramsby [illegible] since the less popular and he will [illegible] fairly concluded, prove an efficient and popular [of]ficer

The result for sheriff was a [illegible] clerkship [illegible] and [illegible] was at [illegible] commenced [illegible] Chamberlin and Edes [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Edward [illegible] [illegible] Willowia [illegible] Smith [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The South and the Empire

THE ENGLISH ELECTIONS.

Beaconsfield's Government Overthrown.

Complete Victory of the Liberals—Gladstone probably will succeed Beaconsfield—Foreign Comment

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

New York April [illegible]—[illegible] to the returns thus far received of the election in [illegible] constituencies [in] Great Britain the liberals have elected [illegible] members the conservatives [illegible] and the home rulers [illegible]. The liberals have gained [illegible] seats [illegible] while the home rulers show a gain of [illegible] seats

London April [illegible] Many more candidates for parliament were [illegible] elected by the opposition. Following are party gains reported: Chas P Phipps conservative for Westbury conservative gain. E W Bridges Williams liberal for Truro liberal gain. The representation from London city is relatively [illegible] F O [illegible] conservative for Hampshire conservative gain. J Spencer Balfour liberal for Tamworth liberal gain. Sir H T Thornton liberal for Knaresborough liberal gain. Mr Warton conservative for Bridgeport conservative gain

Who Shall be Premier?

New York April [illegible]—The World's London special says The question which the conservatives are raising everywhere to console themselves, whether the new liberal government is to be formed by Mr Gladstone or Lord Hartington was settled before the canvass began. This great victory has been organized fought out and won first of all and most of all by Gladstone. It was he who kept alive and developed the passion and purpose of the liberal party and a few months ago he had a full understanding with the Marquis of Hartington as to the results of a triumph if a triumph should be won. Neither the liberal party nor Hartington will consent to the organization of the government under any other leader than Mr Gladstone

A London correspondent says that a strange idea prevails even in well informed quarters that the queen will send for Lord Hartington instead of Lord Granville. It may be taken as absolutely certain she will not summon Gladstone. The ministry formed by Lord Granville would certainly include Gladstone but Lord Hartington not Gladstone would lead the house of commons if the liberal majority should fall below 12 or 15. The next parliament will probably be very short lived

The "Times" on the Composition of the Cabinet.

London April 2—The Times in a leader on the election says the first question which arises is what will be the composition of the cabinet. Lord Hartington in a recent speech seemed to imply that it was in some degree an open question who would lead the liberals. It will be for Lord Beaconsfield to advise the queen who is to be the official chief and parliamentary leader. Lord Granville has every claim on the ground of past services rank and ability to become premier. Lord Hartington will hold an important position in the cabinet, and will lead his party in the house of commons

Lord Hartington Speaks

London April 2—Lord Hartington the liberal leader in a speech to day in Lancashire, said that if a liberal cabinet is to be formed at once the question of premiership should be decided by the party and the wishes of the queen

Newspaper Comment

The Times in its leader says that about one-third of the entire members of the house of commons have now been elected and the apparent result is that the conservative majority has been replaced by a liberal majority. The balance of gains and losses recorded yesterday will suffice to set at rest at least many hopes and fears and to give the country means of estimating the future relations of parties in the house of commons

The liberal vote so far is 720 000 tory vote 521 000 increase for liberals over last election, 154 000

The Standard points out that there is yet no ground for supposing that the liberal majority will prove independent of the home rule vote

Gladstone "Certain to take Office"

London April 4—The Times editorially to day regarding the liberal government as a matter of course, discusses the consequent political prospects and thinks Gladstone is certain to take office

Foreign Comment on the Elections

London April 4—The Paris newspapers La France, Rappel and Liberty exult over the defeat of the conservatives. German newspapers view Gladstone's government with apprehension while Austrian and Turkish journals are astonished at the result. The opinion prevails in Berlin and Vienna that England will be isolated if Gladstone becomes chief of the cabinet

Berlin April 4—The result of the elections in Great Britain have produced the most profound sensation here. It is thought that the reports of liberal success are exaggerated

St Petersburg, April 4—The announcement of the success of the liberals in England has produced considerable satisfaction in political circles here

London April 4—Dispatches from Paris, Berlin, Vienna and Rome represent that disappointment and uneasiness is felt in these capitals at the success of the liberal party in Great Britain while in St Petersburg the news is received with the utmost delight

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate

Washington April [illegible]

Wi[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [select] committee on alleged frauds [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] printed and tabled

Cockrell [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the postal req[illegible] [illegible] the trans[portation] [illegible] He want[ed it] referred to [illegible]

Edmunds [illegible] [illegible] it was sub[stan]tially the same [illegible] introduced [illegible] and then [illegible] the committee

Cockrell said that [illegible] [illegible] the bill entirely and the bill went over

Teller said [illegible] the committee [illegible] frauds [illegible] report [illegible]

The immediate [illegible] bill was considered and Edmunds opposed it, giving reasons therefor. He reviewed the legislation of the extra session [illegible] [illegible] from the president [illegible] referred [illegible] without providing [illegible] for [illegible] [illegible] the maintenance [illegible] the execution of the laws and [illegible] the United States marshals have been obliged at private expense to perform their duties and after congress has been in session four months a [illegible] deficiency bill is reached to pay them back the money they have advanced out of their own pockets to carry on the government, but the condition is imposed that this sham fully overdue debt shall be paid only on further paralysis or emasculation of the election laws. He then made an argument against the appointment of deputies by courts showing the inconvenience, impracticability and impropriety of such a law which was in fact designed to practically annul the existing law. He also opposed the provision for the appointment of deputies from different political parties and said that it would be as sensible to provide for a democratic and republican colonel for each militia regiment. Politics should be wholly separated from this matter. He did not recollect any statute passed during the rebellion for the preservation of liberty and the execution of justice and for the protection of equal rights that had not been assailed here. He referred to Beck's artful test oath repeal bill which was merely a raid treasury grab bill whether by design or accident, that was its effect. There was Whyte's bill to reorganize the jurisdiction of the U S courts. Bayard's to repeal the law for the appointment of supervisors of elections and preventing U S marshals from arresting United States criminals on election day, the effect of which would be to give the ballot boxes to ballot box stuffers where such existed, McDonald's declaring that one day in the year the president of the U S is not to be commander in chief of the army. He again denounced this shameful proceeding of attaching a condition to the payment of a past debt and appealed to the democrats not to press that question. He wanted no sham fraternity but a peace that is real, a good order that is equal and fair and a fraternity that is what the name implies. He wanted personal freedom security and fair elections.

Eaton defended the democratic party as the constitutional party repealing unconstitutional laws when found. He depicted the depraved men who have been appointed supervisors of elections and said that they should not again be appointed

The bill then passed—33 to 31 a party vote.

The Geneva award bill was made unfinished business

The vice president presented a communication from the secretary of war recommending an appropriation of $50 000 for a new military post between Forts Custer and Assinaboine

Cockrell's bill for a Brazil mail service was referred to the postal committee

The bill reported adversely from the pension committee of Jesse U Phares, was considered

During the debate on Phares case Carpenter told an anecdote of Secretary Stanton's to show that spies and scouts who were under age and consequently did not come within the list of pensionable cases were most valuable to the government

Logan didn't believe in indiscriminate pensioning but Phares case should have a special appropriation

Ingalls said that to pay all these pensions would bankrupt the treasury. We now pay $60 000 000 in pensions and the English with all their trouble only $10 000 000

Teller opposed the bill and desired the Utes sent to the Uintah reservation where Colorado's citizens would not be menaced by them. He criticised severely the interior department for its action since the Ute outbreak

Hill favored the bill as tending to repress an Indian war which would retard the settlement of that country. The secretary of the interior obtained this agreement after much difficulty and it was the best to be had now. It did justice to all concerned and broke up tribal organization which prevented the Indians from becoming civilized

The senate disagreed to the house amendment to the census bill and a conference was ordered. After an executive session the senate adjourned till Monday

House.

House went into committee on the star service bill

Stone said that the committee had directed him to move concurrence in senate amendments. He didn't defend the assistant postmaster general but he had yet to find any fraud or violation of law or dishonesty on the part of the postoffice department or any contractor. Adjourned

Haskell defended Assistant Postmaster General Brady from the charge of being a muddill clerk, accused the appropriation committee of suppressing information furnished by Brady, and said that were he postmaster general and a politician, he would put the case to the people and ask an examination of his office

Blount defended the appropriation committee and attacked the postmaster general

Page contended for the retention of the amendments

Hawley closed the debate also assailing the post office department

Senate amendments were concurred in 88 to 79

The committee rose and the house concurred in the amendments, leaving the bill as it passed the senate. It appropriates $11 000 000 for star route service for the current year, prohibits further expediting on routes appropriates $100 000 for new service prohibits expediting under any existing contract at pay exceeding 50 per cent increase upon the original contract and appropriates $50 000 for public printing. COMMERCIAL REPORTS

A few days ago the following statement was made by THE OREGONIAN

As something is said by Tony once more about our alleged monopoly of telegraphic news it may be stated to the public that so far are we from having a monopoly that the Standard has been offered with our consent a whole line of commercial news at a rate forty per cent less than we pay for the very same news and yet this news has been shut off from that paper because it can't pay for it

To this Tony attempts to make answer by a cloud of utterly false statements as follows

The Standard did refuse to submit to what it deemed an imposition, and employed a special commercial editor doing without the dispatches to which THE OREGONIAN refers and when our terms were agreed to we again took them and the consent of THE OREGONIAN was not asked by us nor did we care for it but that paper having gone into a contract that in case we refused or ceased to take these reports it was to have the exclusive right to them and pay what was demanded of us They never were shut off For two months the big organ had to pay this extra expense and as the Standard commercial was better than THE OREGONIAN'S the latter came to the conclusion that it might as well give up its monopoly and take what we offered for the reports in the first instance But this was not our seeking We were satisfied with our commercial and so were our patrons. We forced THE OREGONIAN to come to our terms and it paid about $150 for the privilege of trying to monopolize the markets and as it says we now get the whole line of news the same as it does and on our own terms at that

Now we propose to print an exact statement of the case and to fortify it by an appeal to facts which will leave no room for further question Prior to the 1st February last both THE OREGONIAN and Standard were taking certain commercial reports from the merchants exchange in this city furnished through the gold and stock company each paper paying $10 a week This paper was also taking other commercial dispatches through the associated press At the end of January the merchants exchange offered us the exclusive use of their entire reports for publication for the sum of $160 a month We did not care for these reports exclusively not depending on them beyond a limited extent as we were receiving very full reports of our own which are and will be continued Hence for the exchange reports we offered to pay half the amount asked, and allow the exchange to sell them to others to make up the balance But the manager of the exchange had no confidence that other papers could pay the amount, and no assurance could be obtained from the Standard that it would take the reports. Then as it was argued that the reports were worth more to us than to the Standard on account of our greater circulation, we consented to pay $100 a month and let the Standard take the reports by paying $60 This was made the basis of an understanding with the exchange, and a contract was entered into, under which we agreed to pay the $100 and the exchange was to have the right to sell the reports also to the Standard for $60, as before stated. In the contract an alternative clause was inserted to the effect that if the Standard did not pay, we were to have the reports exclusively and pay therefor $125 a month It was soon found that the Standard could not pay, hence at the end of the first week after this contract went into effect, its reports were shut off. During the balance of February and the month of March it printed some of the quotations which came through the exchange, paying the exchange nothing for them, but obtaining them in some fraudulent or surreptitious way,—probably through some subscriber to the reports of the exchange,—in accord with its usual characteristic and dishonorable methods of stealing and printing news. Against this we remonstrated with the exchange, and gave notice that unless means were found of stopping it we should pay only the $100 a month for the reports Finally on the first of April the Standard agreed again to pay the $60, and the reports which had been cut off nearly two months before on account of its default, were again furnished it. This is the history of the business and the condition in which it now stands. In all probability the Standard will again fail to pay, and the reports will be taken from it again, as it is a beggarly concern, overwhelmed with debt, and can be relied on to pay nothing

The arrangement with the merchants' exchange came about in this way Their reports, for which ourselves and the Standard paid each $10 a week, were to be printed only on the second day As THE OREGONIAN is a newspaper, it could not consent to continuance of this delay in the publication of an important class of news. So it began to take its own reports through the associated press The merchants' exchange then offered us their reports in full, with removal of the restriction as to their publication, but in consideration of furnishing their full reports, without the restriction, they asked an advance from $10 a week for each of the papers to $160 a month, as above stated Thus the facts show that THE OREGONIAN never tried to "monopolize" these reports, as the Standard falsely alleges; nor was it at our instance, as the history of the transaction shows, that the price was raised. Nor again, have we paid for the reports what was demanded of the Standard? We pay $100 It promises to pay $60 If it does not keep its promise,—and there is little doubt that it will default again as it has heretofore,—we are to pay $125, and have the reports exclusively. But we shall not pay the larger sum if it again stops taking the reports direct from the exchange, and is permitted to get them in a stealthy, surreptitious and dishonest way through patrons of the exchange, as it has heretofore done.

We have given this history in detail, because publication of a false statement by the Standard has made it necessary for us to furnish the public with a full account of a transaction in which they have an interest to the extent of their concern in the commercial news obtained through the merchants' exchange Of course it is known that THE OREGONIAN'S chief reliance for commercial reports is its own special dispatches, which are entirely distinct from those of the exchange, cover more ground, go more into detail, contain specialties not otherwise obtainable here, and for the purpose of a newspaper are fuller and better than any others. But as a supplement to these reports, so as to furnish quotations from two different and independent sources, we take the reports of the merchants' exchange Our own reports which are the fullest ever telegraphed here, are exclusive; no other paper gets them, or can get them, and hence THE OREGONIAN furnishes by far the most comprehensive and valuable commercial report ever published here, including foreign, eastern, California and home markets, reports of special markets, as wool, freights, stocks, the Mark Lane and other reports of English crops and markets, San Francisco charters and tonnage lumber coal and agricultural produce, and in fact everything of a commercial nature in which producers and merchants of Oregon and Washington have any interest whatever We are expending $500 a month on account of commercial news so as to meet the demands of the country in this behalf and make THE OREGONIAN indispensable and unapproachable in this as it is in every other line of important news

EXCESSIVE PRICES

It is extraordinary to what extent prices have risen during the past few months and that not as a result of inflation for there has been no inflation nor as a consequence of depreciated currency for gold has been the basis [illegible] transactions and a paper dollar is worth as much as a gold dollar A speculation [illegible] controls the markets The New York [illegible] gives the following table of comparative prices

ARTICLES	1880.	1879	Increase per cent
Cotton middlings 100 lbs	$13 25	$9 5	30
Iron No foundry	39 50	18 50	113
Scotch	29 50	20 00	47
Rails, iron eastern	65 00	36 50	77
Steel	82 50	43 0	90
Copper 100 lbs	28 75	15 50	48
Tin Straits	31 75	20 50	40
Lead	5 90	3 50	70
Coal stove	4 00	3 00	33
Cotton, prints 10 yards	5 87	3 2	80
News print lb	9	5½	65

This list might be extended indefinitely, with like results. It is true that prices were low a year ago but it is likewise true that they are now abnormally and unreasonably high Yet the demand at the high prices now prevailing is far greater than it was at the low prices of a year ago Most mills and factories still have orders far ahead and no break in prices is yet indicated Yet such break will come collapse is inevitable and the only question is when it will begin The revulsion will be proportioned in extent and severity to the inflation of prices Therefore the signs are not good for the future Our balance of trade with foreign countries favorable for years is fast tending towards a minimum quantity Extravagance has become the rule to almost as great an extent as it was before the severe experience of the late period of depression began These are results which any person of clear vision can foresee It appears to be necessary for us to live in one extreme or the other There is no proper balance and no mean This is due largely to our protective tariff system which alternately stimulates over production and induces scarcity leading to these excessive fluctuations in prices and forcing industry and trade to alternate and opposite extremes of depression and inflation.

No one who respects himself can be provoked to enter into any personal controversy with Sam Clarke The reason is plain One whose character is a synonym of pusillanimity and imbecility who has suffered the public indignity of corporal punishment with many stripes for his slanderous scurrility till men long ago out of respect for themselves ceased to chastise unresisting poltroonery, who has made a miserable failure of everything he has ever undertaken except confidence games and cheating enterprises of which his raids on the school funds may be taken as examples who allows himself to be governed by a most vile malignity, which however is neutralized by a most pitiful impotence, and whose only refuge from steady contempt is to keep out of public notice—such an individual can get up no controversy on personalities with us We pass him over to the vengeance of the record made long ago by his own contemptible character and leave him to write in as much peace as he can derive from digestion of the venom of his own impotent spleen his namby pamby diatribes against ourselves and to print the same in the columns of those so called newspapers which are fit associates of his Farmer in noisy quackery and worthless ness Never was the fitness of things better exemplified than in the copartnership between Sam Clarke and his present associate Noltner That they have got together at last is overwhelming proof that the principle of natural selection will find a way over all obstacles to assert itself Here are two careers blending into one and each at once the counterpart and complement of the other in everything that fails to inspire respect, or to win or deserve success among men

A dispatch of to day says that Grant will speak out soon and place himself on a platform that will sweep the country Also that nothing but a most urgent call could induce him to resume official duties and then only upon the understanding that he is to be relieved at the end of four years The various parts of this statement do not harmonize very well If nothing but a call of the most urgent nature could induce him to come forward why should he resolve to speak out in the hope of causing the call to be made? Again, as there would probably be another call equally as urgent in 1884 what right would he have to insist on being relieved? If we are to vote for Grant in 1880 we shall want him also in 1884, and again in 1888 should he live so long Should the country make up its mind that it has only one citizen fit to be president, it certainly has a right to command his services as long as he lives Only it might be as well to dispense with the trouble of holding elections

A statement is made by the Albany Journal that "twenty or twenty-five (some say thirty)," members of the New York delegation to Chicago were selected by the districts because of their well known freedom from machine control" The Philadelphia Press reports twenty two members of the Pennsylvania delegation who are positively resolved to disregard the instructions of their state conventions. In both states most of the dissidents are for Blaine. Added to the delegates from other states already chosen for Blaine, the aggregate for Blaine is already much larger than that for Grant, and the returns have yet hardly begun to come in

The New York Mail says there are 474 mining companies reported in a recently published New York mining directory Of these about 800 are recent incorporations The amount of nominal capitalization is appalling. The figures foot up to nearly $1 700 000 000 Of this vast picture—for it is nothing else—about $300 000 000 is embraced by the bonanzas and one or two other Nevada mines and some foreign companies The remaining $1,400,000 000 or thereabouts has for its basis about $50 000,000 of real capital invested, and about as much more in actual mines land, machinery and ore in sight, that can be estimated as actually existing

Our cable reports leave no doubt of the success of the liberals and the complete defeat of the conservatives in the English elections The Beaconsfield government has failed before the people and its opponents take the reins of power.

CITY.

HEAVY TRAVEL OVER THE MACADAM ROAD.—When the county commissioners purchased the macadamized road a few months ago and threw it open they builded better than they knew. Travel that had taken other directions before it was opened was soon diverted to the macadam road and so great is the number of teams crossing to this side from Milwaukee, that the present ferry is unable to transfer them with anything like the desired promptness. The travel during the spring and summer months promises to be much larger than through the winter and in order to meet the demand for transportation across the river Mr Harlow proposes to build as soon as possible a steam ferry to take the place of the rope ferry now in use. The continuous heavy travel over the road has cut it up considerably and in points [illegible] has spoiled the only fine drive that Portlanders could enjoy. The county commissioner and the road supervisor of the district owe it to the business interests of Portland, to the farmers on the east side of the Willamette as well as on the west side and to those who find pleasure in driving to keep in good repair this road which was substantially built and which can be kept in excellent condition at small expense.

SOMETHING NEAT.—W H Lenninger of Salem, has just completed and placed on exhibition in W W Martin s show window of that city, one of the most intricate and beautiful pieces of moss work ever executed in this state. It is a landscape view embracing nature's most stupendous works in the way of mountains, forests, valleys rivulets rocks and lake, with liberal exhibit of animal life executed blade by blade with different colored mosses, the effect being original and at the same time of a most pleasing character. The picture is some 3x4 feet in size elegantly framed and an object of admiration to all who have examined it.

SKELETON FOUND.—A box containing the skeleton of an adult, evidently buried about ten years, was found on the bank of Sauvie's Island Saturday afternoon. Coroner Cooke was informed of the fact, took a jury and visited the scene yesterday. The verdict showed that the skeleton "was found nine miles below Portland." There are numerous lonely graves along the Willamette and Columbia which might be investigated with profit by the coroner on quiet Sunday afternoons.

EAST PORTLAND LODGE I O G T.—Next Friday evening the hall over Wm. Dalton's store on Fourth street, East Portland which has been fitted up in an appropriate manner, will be dedicated as a temperance temple by the Lodge I. O. G. T., which hitherto has met in Strube's hall. The exercises will be both interesting and entertaining, and everybody is invited to be present.

THREE FROM HONGKONG.—It is reliably stated that the American barks Coloma, Alden Besse, W. A. Holcomb and Garibaldi which sailed from this port to Hongkong last summer will return here laden with rice, general merchandise and Chinese. The two first named will sail between the 10th and 15th instant, and the two latter before the end of the month.

INSANE PATIENT.—An old, decrepid man, whose name could not be obtained, arrived a few days ago from Jacksonville in charge of Sheriff Strang, whom the authorities of that county declared insane. The poor old invalid is perfectly harmless, and it seems had been abandoned by family and friends, if he had any, and left to die in a destitute condition.

L. L. A. DIRECTORS.—The Portland Library Association met in the library chess room Saturday evening, and elected the following directors for this year. W. M. Ladd, [illegible], A. S. Whiting, Geo. S. Brooke, [illegible] H. F. Hide, M. T. Harvey, F. R. Strong, [illegible] Stoddard. The directors will hold a meeting Tuesday evening.

THE "ALEX. DUNCAN."—The coasting steamer Alex. Duncan loaded 1800 barrels of lime at San Juan island for this port yesterday. After her arrival here from the north she will make a short trip to Tillamook, Yaquina and Coos bays.

ARTICLES FILED.—Ferguson Chapter No. 5 R. A. M. of Corvallis, filed recently with the secretary of state, articles of incorporation with Wallace Baldwin, H. E. Harris and M [illegible] Woodcock, as incorporators.

FOR SITKA.—The steamer California will leave Flander's dock at 5 o'clock this afternoon for Victoria and Alaska ports.

THE FRONT STREET PAVEMENT.

The contract for putting down Belgian pavement on Front street having been let to Messrs. Hall & Kern for $1 83 per square yard the report had been started and published that the work can not be done at that figure and that the contractors will either do a poor job lose money or else throw up the contract. Now it is not true that this bid is too low the others are simply too high. And as Mr. Hall is a well known and responsible man who never failed in anything he undertook the city may depend upon it that this contract will be properly fulfilled. And ample security will be given for proper performance of the contract.

THE PRESS.

Interesting Sermon by Rev. J. A. Cruzan at the Congregational Church last Night.

Oh that my words were now written. Oh that they were printed in a book

That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock forever. Job 19 23 and 24

This was the text of Mr Cruzan s splendid sermon last night which was attentively listened to by a large congregation. Want of space alone prevents its publication in full. Mr Cruzan commenced by saying that it was a matter of gratitude that pulpit utterances [illegible] [illegible] the masses [illegible] their teachings should last only a short time in fickle memories. Next to the Bible the [illegible] inheritance the speaker continued ever given to the world is the daily press. Books are [illegible] but the masses obtain their reading from daily publications. Next to [illegible] the [illegible] the newspapers are the greatest educators [illegible] world. The editor of a great newspaper [illegible] measure the character of the people [illegible] [illegible] the masses of the people on a [illegible] the newspaper is a reproduction of the opinion expressed by the paper they read regularly. A newspaper [illegible] [illegible] making itself a record of the doings of the world [illegible] [illegible] the law and [illegible] [illegible] can bring so rich a return [illegible] a newspaper and no man [illegible] [illegible] that he cannot take one. I would wish to impress every editor with the responsibility of his position. He wields a mighty weapon a two edged sword powerful for good and powerful for evil. It is impossible to estimate the responsibility of the managers and editors of newspapers. The president of the United States does not wield half as much power as the editor of a great metropolitan daily. There is no subject touching our highest and best interests that the editor does not discuss. No man should be so conscientious so pure and so incorruptible as he who moulds public sentiment through a daily newspaper. The mind of him that guides the words of a newspaper should be as pure as the mind of him that preaches God s word from the pulpit. Editors and ministers stand on sacred ground and both should be held to strictest accountability and not until editors realize the responsibility of their positions will there be a pure press.

The law of supply and demand regulates in a great measure the tone of the press. If a clean and high toned paper exists there will be a clean and high toned sentiment to demand it. The moral and the Christian people are the reading public and they have it in their power to raise the tone of papers by admitting no journal into their homes or places of business that is not pure.

Mr Cruzan then referred to political papers, and expressed regret that instead of discussing measures for public good many should turn themselves into smut machines and drive pure men from politics. He noted with pleasure that within the last ten years one great newspaper after another had thrown off party yoke and now wielded power never before wielded as party organs. He next referred to the mercenary press whose managers had no higher feeling than the dollar mark. All public educators he said "should be above money." Their motive should be to do what is right not what will pay. When they are governed by the latter motive they are bound to sink into impurity. The remedy again lies with the moral and Christian community. There is no excuse for a man taking an unclean paper to get news. If he does so it is because he wants it.

One of the best signs of the times is the increasing number of clean papers and the growing demand for them.

The speaker closed with an eloquent appeal to editors to use their best efforts in the cause of morality comparing their duties to those of lighthouse keepers, which if neglected would imperil the lives of thousands.

IMPROVING FRONT STREET.

Bids Opened Saturday—One Firm Offers to do the Work for Less than the Cost of Nicholson.

Saturday afternoon the following bids for the improvement of Front street from Ash to Madison with Belgian pavement were opened in the city auditor s office by the committee on streets and public property

	Stone Pavement	Excavation	Total
A Hamilton	$2 60	10	$2 70
W Sweeney	2 49	10	2 59
Chalmer & Holmes	2 48	17	2 65
Donovan, Phelin & Co	2 36½	20	2 56
D Ellerson	2 25	15	2 40
McGrath & McCarty	2 18	23	2 41
J D Drew	2 12	12	2 24
S S Cook	2 07	10	2 17
Hall & Kern	1 83	10	1 93

The bids for the excavation are so much per cubic yard and for the pavement per square yard a separate bid being made for each work. The bid of Hall & Kern is so low that it is thought by those directly interested that the work cannot be done at the figures named and be in accordance with the specifications. The committee took the bids under advisement and will probably take definite action on them to day

HOME SOCIABLE.

The sociable announced in these columns for last evening was as [illegible] as those who attended and participated can testify. Bethel Home Lodge of International Good Templars is accomplishing good work. Although organized as recently as December last it now numbers a hundred members.

The [illegible], now lying [illegible] and to leave Portland this week has all the crew but three or four members of Bethel Home lodge including Capt Williams his first officer and crew [illegible] will carry away the flag as the banner temperance ship that has sailed from Portland this season.

At the meeting last Saturday night nearly all her crew were on hand and several seamen present participated in the entertainment by singing nautical songs to the great delight of all present.

The following young ladies contributed greatly to the entertainment by their recitations and singing viz Misses Hattie and Susie Glascow Miss [illegible] Shearer and Miss Kate Crommie. Mr C H Marvin s readings and recitations were excellent and called forth enthusiastic applause. Lord Byron s "Lochinvar" was rendered by Mr J McNeill with such a pathos and patriotic ardor [illegible] as to carry us all away and translate us to the charmed scenes and haunts of fair Caledonia s glens and crags.

Other friends contributed to the feast of reason and flow of soul. Good words from Chaplain Stubbs concerning the aims of these social gatherings and their successes among the men of the sea appropriately following the administration of sandwiches coffee and cake by Mrs Stubbs assisted by ladies and gentlemen friends.

Considerable pains had been bestowed on the decoration which was quite tastefully performed and altogether the sailor lads and their numerous friends present will we doubt not recur to the occasion as a happy episode in the rough voyaging of life by land and sea.

The Bethel Home Lodge holds its regular meeting to night at 7 30 cor of D and Third streets

CITY HOMESTEAD.

THE LAND IN THIS ENTERPRISE LIES adjoining the city and is only from ten to fifteen minutes walk from the court house and a less distance than that from one of the best public schools in the city. It is divided into

One Thousand and Twenty-Four Lots,

Fifty by one hundred feet in size with streets sixty feet wide. Two hundred of these lots will be reserved for those who desire to improve and build this summer and fall. These lots will be sold on the same liberal terms that are offered in the Homestead proper

Price.

All lots will be sold for $100 each payable in instalments of $5 per month or the small sum of 16⅔ cents per day. No interest will be charged and a good and sufficient Bond for Deed will be given upon the payment of the first installment of $5, and a Warranty Deed upon receipt of last installment both without expense to purchaser

Appreciation of Values.

By reference to The Oregonian of Feb 15th, it will be found that city property has advanced twenty five per cent during the past year. As there has been no excitement the rise is wholly attributable to the increasing immigration and the growing confidence inspired by our numerous railroad enterprises and the development of our many natural resources that have hitherto slumbered for lack of energetic men to develop them

It is True,

That of all real estate investments the homestead plan is the best and safest as all who invest are interested in making the whole property more valuable. To illustrate suppose A builds a house on his lot, and B owns a lot adjoining. B gets the benefit of A s improvement while A is not injured thereby. This philosophy will apply to the entire property.

We have donated a lot to each of the principal churches for church purposes

In addition to the above two lots are set apart for public school purposes

Division.

The division of this property will take place when the lots are all sold or in any event not later than the 28th February, 1881,

at the Mechanics' Pavilion commencing at 10 o'clock A. M. public notice of which will be given by publication in two principal journals in the state

It will be made in the manner decided upon by a majority of the purchasers in the Homestead. Parties interested may appoint proxies to act for them if they desire to do so. Parties who do not attend at the time of the division either in person or by proxy will [illegible] plan settled upon by the majority of those who attend.

It is suggested by the purchasers that division might be made by [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] lot [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the name of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] stand in another [illegible] a name will be drawn from one and a [illegible] from the other and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Attention! Attention! Attention!

Is called to the fact that we have just received per steamer State of California, a LARGE BANKRUPT STOCK purchased in New York by MR. J FRANKLIN at 50 cents on the dollar and the way we intend to show you that what we say is so and not merely bragging, is by giving you a price list that will astonish you all and if these figures are not the LOWEST in Oregon, we will stand aside and take a back seat. Competition is the life of trade, and there is so much competition in Portland that goods must be sold low to gain trade and owing to the facilities we have in having our wholesale house in San Francisco at 15 and 20 Battery street, we will again state that our prices cannot be beat.

MONDAY MORNING APRIL 5 1880

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA

The Threatened Election Contest---Kalloch's Position.

SAN FRANCISCO April —At a meeting of the board of election commissioners to-day after disposing of routine business the mayor said that the board would meet next Monday to canvass the returns of the late election and that formal protests would then be entered against the canvass on grounds of illegality of the color of the paper ballots used. Nobody believed that it would amount to anything but he thought the board should be prepared to meet the question. Auditor Dunn and Attorney Murphy thought that the board had nothing to do with the subject as it would be a matter for the courts to decide. The above remark of the mayor would seem to indicate either that he has been misrepresented as saying he would endeavor to raise a contest over the matter or that he has receded from his former position.

Mine Assessment

SAN FRANCISCO April 3 —South Bulwer levies an assessment of 50 cents. Goodshaw levies an assessment of 25 cents.

Snow and Floods

SAN FRANCISCO April 3 —Iowa Hill had five and a half inches of rain yesterday and two feet of snow. The flood that ensued was unprecedented in that locality. Mining claims were washed out, creeks cleaned of debris and much damage done.

Railroad Accident.

COLTON Cal, April 3 —A smash up occurred on the Southern Pacific road last night near Cabason station. Nineteen cars loaded with steel rails lumber and merchandise were wrecked and an engine badly damaged. Robert Huett fireman was quite seriously hurt by jumping from his engine. An unknown tramp who was stealing a ride in a stage coach loaded on a flat car was killed. As near as can be learned the accident was caused by the engine jumping the ties and rails being wet preventing the brakes from holding the train.

Gouges at John Chinaman

SACRAMENTO April 3 —Neumann offered a substitute for S B 433 relating to fishing in the waters of the state, which prohibits persons not liable to become citizens of the United States from that privilege, its purpose being to exclude Chinese from that branch of industry. The substitute regulates the size of meshes and seines so as to prevent the capture of small fish. Its author explained that the act prevented the use of set nets and traps. Gorman said that he would vote for it as a separate bill, but not as a substitute for his own bill to prevent the Chinese from taking the fish.

Traylor did not like the substitute and he could not support Gorman's bill, as it prevented all aliens from catching fish.

Newmann said he had no intention of displacing Gorman's bill, but he was satisfied that the substitute was the proper measure of protection.

The substitute was referred as a separate bill to the committee on fish and game.

Gorman's bill was then considered and ordered to engrossment—ayes 20 noes, 12. It simply prevents all persons incapable of becoming electors from fishing.

Johnson reported favorably from the Chinese committee a bill to compel Chinese firms to keep their accounts in English.

The California Militia Bill

SACRAMENTO, April 3 —In the assembly Walker's bill relating to the militia came up as special order.

McCarthy moved to strike out all of section 14, which provides for an annual parade and gives to each county $2000 for expenses.

Dubruth was in favor of the motion. He said that the militia was of no use. It was his experience that whenever they were most needed militiamen had generally sought the brush and kept away from danger, lost, ayes 21, noes 45.

ARIZONA.

Progress of the S. P. R. R.

TUCSON, April 3 —The track of the S P R. R. is laid eighteen and a half miles east of Tucson.

Bullion Shipment.

The bullion shipments for the week from Tombstone are $57,930.

The A. T. & S. F. Road.

W. R. Morley, engineer of the A. T & S. F, is here. He leaves to-morrow for Guaymas to superintend the construction of the railroad from that point to the American line.

Arizona Crop Prospects.

Reports from different grain growing sections of the territory say that the crop will be about one-third greater than ever before. The rainfall has been such as to insure large crops.

New Mining Discoveries.

The mining excitement in Southern Arizona is growing greater every day during the week. A number of rich discoveries have been made in Santa Catarina, Tombstone and Patagonia districts.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Victoria News.

VICTORIA, April 3.—The steamship Dakota, which arrived yesterday, has passed on to the Sound.

Several parties of railway engineers and the railroad contractor, Mr. Onderdonk, are in town. Preparations for active operations impart a lively aspect to the town. The parties will be formed here.

The bark [illegible], with lumber for Valparaiso, has gone to sea.

The bark Mary E. Reed, for the same destination with a similar cargo, is loaded.

The bark E. Talbot, for Wellington coal, arrived last night.

VICTORIA, April 4.—There was a slight sprinkle of snow this morning.

A telegram from Clinton, on the mainland, yesterday reports the weather ten degrees below zero.

The condition of live stock is improving, and the losses will not exceed thirty per cent.

Reports of a rich placer gold strike on Harvey creek, Cariboo, are afloat.

The ship [illegible] and bark Don Nicolas for cargoes of coal arrived this morning.

The bark Fanny goes to sea to-morrow.

The efforts to effect a compromise between the Vancouver coal company and their employes have failed, the men having declined to accept the terms offered by the company. The strike therefore continues.

The house of assembly will be opened by the lieutenant governor to-morrow.

Chicago Grain Market.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

CHICAGO, April 4 —The grain markets have been pretty steady, heavy supplies and moderate continental demand causing the bulls to pause and slackening receipts with diminishing stocks in store being the principal influences which encouraged the bulls. The splendid weather which will be most favorable to farmers if it continue and which has already been utilized by them to some extent has proven a good card also for the low rates to which all classes of grain have fallen. Wheat is now about 28 cents lower than during the highest prices last winter. Corn is 14 cents lower than then and a cent lower than a year ago this time. Oats are 10 cents lower than late in the winter although 10 cents higher than a year ago.

Wheat receipts are very small and corn is falling off while shipments are beginning to be made on a mammoth scale over 2 000 000 bushels having left here during the week.

CHICAGO April 4 —Wheat generally lower closing firm $1 11¾ cash, $1 11¾ for April $1 13⅛ bid for May.

Corn—Unsettled, closing firm fresh 34⅝a34⅞ for cash 34⅞ for April 36⅜ for May 36 ⅛ bid for June.

Oats—Weak 26@26⅛ for cash 30¼ for May. Rye and barley unchanged. Whisky 6.

New York Markets.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

NEW YORK April 4 —There has been considerable irregularity and feverishness in commercial circles during the past week and markets have in numerous instances been characterized by an unusually erratic course prices fluctuating radically the general tendency in some instances being toward higher and others toward lower basis. The nearing resumption of canal navigation and the opening up of spring have exerted considerable influences in the breadstuffs markets which has been irregular and are considerable lower than a week ago. This morning wheat opened active and higher but closed lower and dull. Provisions are higher and fairly active.

Catarrhal

[illegible]

Wei De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh explains the following important facts

1 That Catarrhal Colds [illegible] poisonous infection, at first [illegible] and analy constitutional

2 That, [illegible] the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies

3 That impurities [illegible] are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs thus poisoning the [illegible]

4 That Catarrhal virus [illegible] Deafness Dyspepsia Chronic Diarrhœa Bronchitis Leucorrhœa and Consumption

5 That Smokes Douches Inhalations and Insufflable Snuffs cannot possibly remove [illegible]

6 That an antidote for Catarrh [illegible] possesses an inoculative [illegible] quality of being absorbed by, the [illegible] mucous wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony

SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure

MIDDLE AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr S will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice $5. Call or address
